ALMA MATER

Here at Hickman County High School

Memories e'er shall be,

Where our hearts will pledge forever

Loyalty to thee.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater

Long You will remain

In our hearts through joy

and sorrows;

Long your praise we will sing,

FOREWORD

The class of 1965 is to be congratulated on the sixth edition of the Falcon. You have recorded here not only the activities of your school, but also the success and failures, and the joys and sorrows that each of us encounters as students and citizens of our democratic society.

This yearbook should give each of us many hours of enjoyment now and in the future.

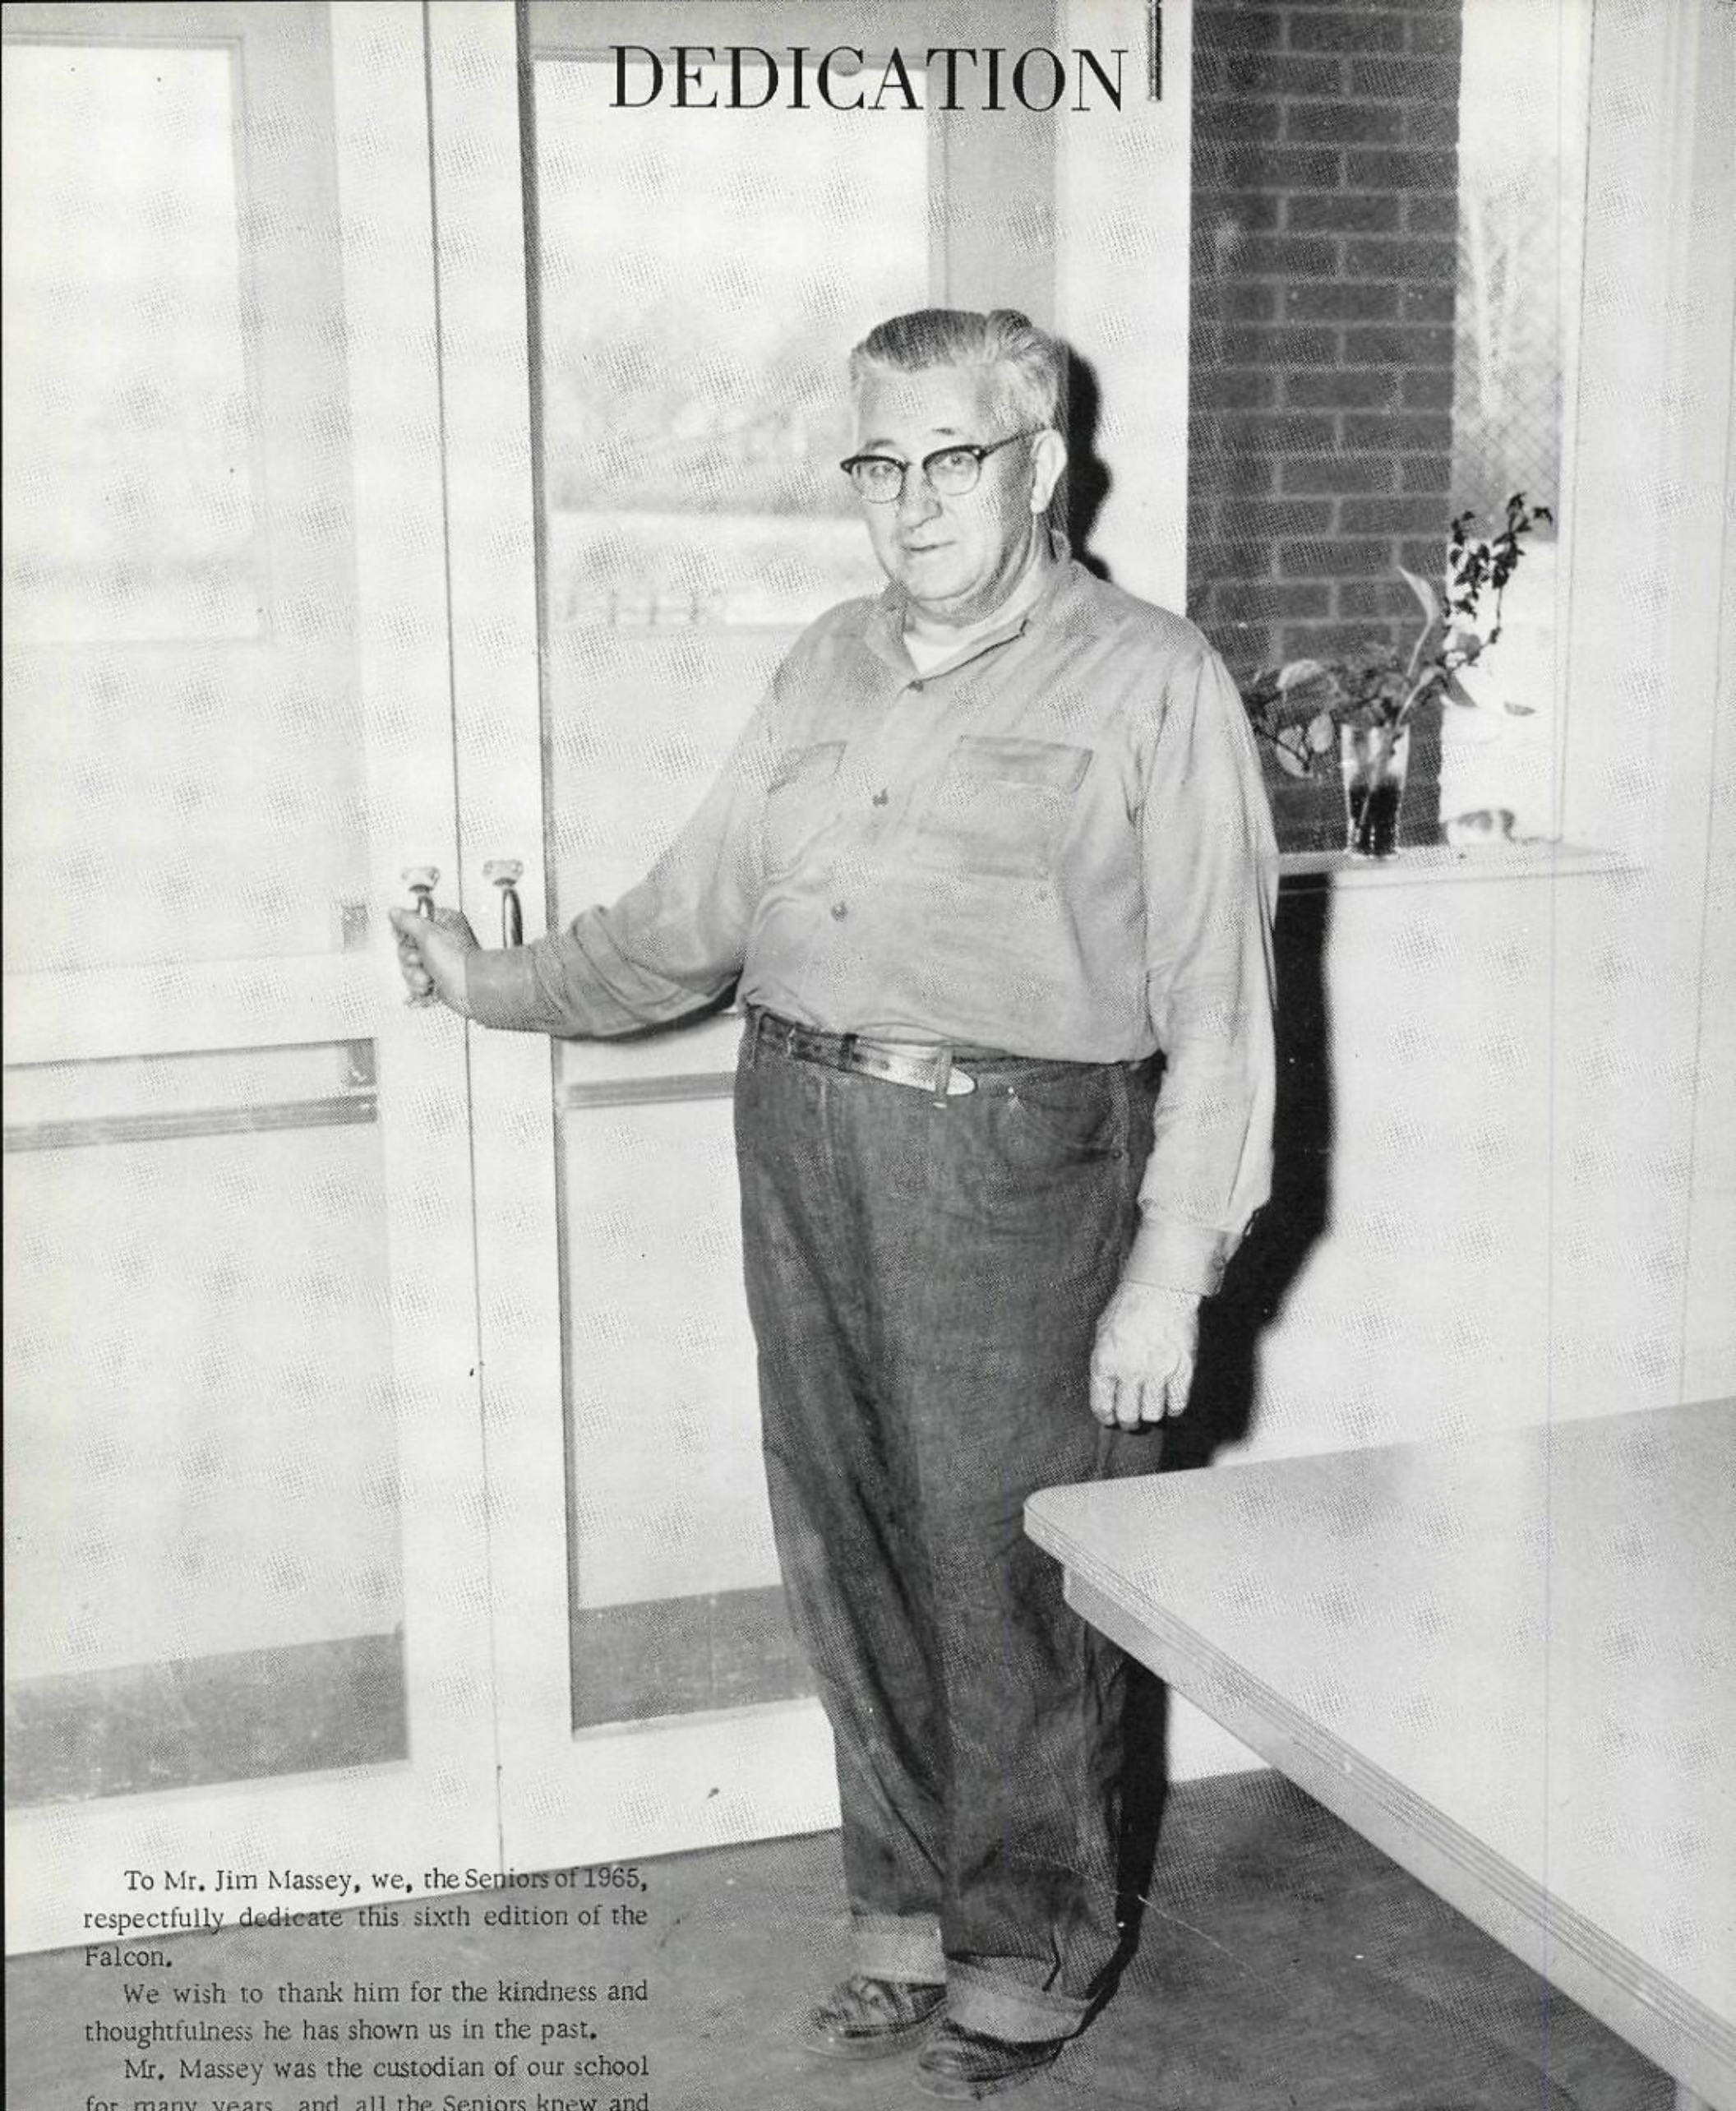
DEDICATION



To Mr. Jim Massey, we, the Seniors of 1965, respectfully dedicate this sixth edition of the Falcon.

We wish to thank him for the kindness and thoughtfulness he has shown us in the past.

Mr. Massey was the custodian of our school for many years, and all the Seniors knew and loved him.

We want to take this opportunity to wish him the very best, and may God bless him.

JOHN C. ASBELL
Many will speak in muffled tones
"Beware when a Thinker is turned loose on Earth in days to come."

JUDITH BENEDICT
Her ways are ways of pleasantness;
Her paths are paths of peacefulness.

DORRILL BERRY
As I see,
A happy youth you've had, beautiful and free.

BETTY BOULTON
For one not so old,
Your knowledge is something to behold.

HENRY BRAZZELL
With your understanding ideas toward mankind,
You will live in splendor within our minds.

JEANETTE BYERS
When we look past the veil,
You will be our favorite nightingale.

SARAH BYERS
Even though all else will become part of the shadows and shade,
Your purity of heart will never fade

BRENDA CANNON
Your happy ways do seem
Like something fashioned in a perfect dream.

LORAINE CLARK
Your radiant beauty like a star
Can be seen glittering from afar.

BRUNETTA CURTIS
A girl of laughter and cheer
Who's gay all the year.

ALICIA L. DARBY
A radiant personality that drives away the darkness of night
And brings forth all that's good and bright.

JAMES K. DAVIS
The reason you excel so in sport
Tis because, we think you're not so short.

LINDA DOUGLAS
A girl whose heart is always gay,
Whether it be dark or day.

HERBERT EMERSON
Your friendship is counted as one of the strongest bands,
Even on Earth, with all her shifting sands.

JOHN B. EVANS III
Wherever he is, there can be done no harm.
For indeed he has the special gift of charm.

ELOISE FOWLER
You're a person as rare as a rose without thorns,
For your beauty will never be scorned.

JOYCE GARGUS
As merry as the day is long,
Always upon her lips a song.

VIRGINIA GARRISON
With her what is natural,
Is always the best of nature.

PATSY GRAY
The beholder of sweet nameless grace,
As can be seen within her face.

JOHNNY HALES
When confronted with pain
He's hardly ever heard to complain.

DORENDA HALTEMAN
The bearer of a happy smile,
Indeed makes a friend worthwhile.

DENNIS R. HELM
Manners that are of the mildest,
And a heart that is of the gentlest.

JANICE HELM
Gracious to all;
A friend to all.

JOHN HOBBY
Might in build and power;
Great in honor and heart.

KAY HOPKINS
When the woods are again green
We will call upon you with your kindness to be our queen.

KATHRYN HUNTER
Even though its been short since we met,
Of you, we'll never forget.

JUDY JACKSON
Gladness of heart
Is indeed, for you an art.

DONNA JOHNSON
When we speak of you, we think of spring,
For indeed you are, a darling thing.

EDWINTA KELLY
The true warmth of thy personality, I'm sure
Will in our minds, for ages endure.

SUSAN KERR
When all else has gone away
Our fond memories of you will never decay.

JAMES W. KIMBRO
With you friendly way,
Indeed brings forth a happy day.

BULLY LATHAM
You have the secret of success
Within your ways of happiness.

DALE LATTA
Always at his best
When practicing the art of jest.

MILTON McMAHAN
A favorite of us all
Even during the weary months of fall.

EUGENE McMORRIS
With your strength of character you will endure
All the trials of life within the future.

JOAN MINTON
In all my life I've never known a time as sweet
As the time you and I did meet.

BOBBY MOYERS
Kind to all
A friend to all.

BARBARA MULLINS
Your many virtues as a lady stand out in the night
As shines the bright moonbeams light.

Compliments of
THE HICKMAN COUNTY GAZETTE

CAROLINE O'NEAL
A darling of us all
Who else can boast, "Cutest of all."
ELAINE O'NEAL
This lightness of April showers
Compares your beauty to spring flowers.
GEORGE PADGETT
The light of happiness within his eyes
Such as the sun's warmth of the skies.
JOAN PARKER
The joy of knowing you cannot be measured
For indeed it has been a pleasure.
EDWARD PICKARD
From man to boy
Let us all be happy when near your joy.
IVAN POTTER
He was elected the class poet,
But reading his poems you'd never know it.
TRECIA PURSELL
When a just cause of man is put to motion
You will be there with such devotion.
ELIZABETH RODGERS
Your courteous and graceful ways, like the peaceful dove
Brings to our hearts the true meaning of friendship and love.
CLYDE ROGERS
When in the distant future I'm asked my point of view
I'll answer by saying, "A friend in him I knew."
WANDA ROGERS
In her kindness there is revealed
All the treasures of life, that to us, have been concealed.
DANA ROHRER
In all you do, you exhibit it,
Your fine sense of wit.
MIKE ROSE
Enjoys a fate
Full of things that make men great.

JERRY RUSHING
Over the land, wide and far
It is known, a friend of mine you are.
MARY RUSHING
Who practices that art
Of bringing joy to other's hearts.
ORENE RUSHING
When you first came into my sight
This was a vision of delight.
DOROTHY SCOTT
In the broad daylight
To witness your kindness is a fine delight.
JERRY SHELTON
We're sure you're not to fall
When it comes to the practice of basketball.
JOYCE STEPHENS
To one with such gentle emotions,
Like the soft winds of summer oceans.
JERRY SWIFT
He has all the qualities of a gentleman
Truly a fine example of the race of man.
RUSSELL TARR
There's no harm in being a rover
For all the world loves a lover.
BRENDA VEATCH
None but herself
Can be herself.
GAYLON WEST
One I have in mind
Who brings to all happy sunshine.
DANNY WILLIAMS
To one who carried forth in many battles
The cause of the Hickman County Falcons.
DIANE WOOTEN
As do the stars and moon in the skies,
The light of humor and with shine in your eyes.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Hickman County High School, Class of 1965, having completed four of the happiest years of our lives, wish to express our deepest affection for H. C. H. S. and the faculty who have helped us achieve our goals.

As senior, we do hereby declare and affirm this to be our last will and testament.

I, Sarah Byers, will my chair in chemistry class to anyone who will take better advantage of it than I have.

We, Jeanette Byers and Eloise Fowler, will our love for Tennessee boys to anyone with sound nerves and the ability to keep up with them.

I, John Asbell, am not willing anything to anybody because I need all I've got.

I, Dale Latta, will my ability to play pool and still make good grades to Billy Potter, who needs them both.

I, Ivan Potter, will this thought to the underclassmen of H. C. H. S. "The best of life is life itself."

I, Kay Hopkins, will my place in the senior Home Ec. class to Faye Shelton if she can take it.

I, Herbert Emerson, will my ability to wear a size nine shoe to Donald Dickerson, the Jolly Green Giant. He wears a size 12 D.

I, Billy Latham, will my bucket seats to Neil Mathis who finds them very comfortable at all times and places.

I, Dorrill Berry, will the business end of Hauser's paddle to anyone who can take the Punishment.

I, Patsy Gray, will my love for Jones Boys to Pam Whitlock.

We, Donna Johnson, Li Darby, and Dorenda Halteman, will our ability to comprehend chemistry and Mr. Clark to all future chemistry victims.

I, Kenny Davis, will my Mustang to Mr. Coogle for his 409 has about had it.

I, Elizabeth Rodgers, will my place in the senior class to my brother, Tommy.

I, Orene Rushing, will my love for Columbus to Annell Weatherford.

I, Linda Douglas, being of unsound mind, will by ability to upset the sixth period Home Ec. class with my laughing, to my sister, Phyllis.

I, Dana Rohrer, will my love for Joe Wayne Weaterford and his cherry top car to anyone stupid enough to get caught.

I, Jimmy Kimbro, will my place in Hickman County High School to anyone who wants it.

I, Johnny Hales, will my trips to Graves County to anyone who has the patience to make the trip there and back.

I, Joan Parker, will my green eyes and blond hair and my love for red GTO convertibles to no one.

I, Susan Kerr, will my chair in chorus to Janie Murchison.

I, Judy Jackson, will my love for Croley to all the city folks of Clinton.

I, Bobby Moyers, will my 1936 Allis-Chalmers to Herman Johnson.

I, Joyce Gargus, will my ability to graduate to my brothers, and boy do they need it.

I, Gaylon West, will my high topped hair-do's to anyone with nerve enough to try to fix one.

I, Virginia Garrison, will my ability to finish high school to my cousin, Nancy.

I, Judith Benedict, will my position as editor of the Falcon to my sister, Rita who needs a little hard work.

I, Henry Brazzell, will my love for Hickman County High School to Carlisle County.

I, Brenda Veatch, will my dark hair to anyone who wants it.

I, Jerry Rushing, being of more or less sound mind and body, do hereby will my Monday morning disposition to John Radford.

I, Edwinta Kelly, will my ability to miss the school bus so often to John Calvin Kelly.

I, Joan Minton, will my love for first period study hall teachers to my sister, Glenda.

I, Eugene McMorries, will my chemistry book to anyone who promises to study it more than I did.

I, Mary Rushing, will my old, worn out seat on the Columbus bus to Cheryl Tanner.

I, Joyce Stephens, will my position in Mrs, Graham's speech class to any girl who can talk like "papa Bear".

I, Betty Boulton, will my reputation as a reckless driver to anyone who wants it, since I'm "reforming".

I, Wanda Rogers, will the money box full of change to anyone who can carry it.

I, Janice Helm, will my desk in Gruder's American History class to Lee Wright in hopes it will bring him better luck.

We, Carline and Elaine O'Neal, will our ability to stay out after 12:00 and not get caught to Anita Courtney.

I, Mike Rose, will my physics book to any poor snook who can remain as quiet in class as I have.

I, Brenda Cannon, will to Martha Bugg my love for Carlisle boys.

I, Trecia Pursell, will to my cousin, Jill, my ability to stay out of trouble. She will need it.

I, Johnny Evans, will to Willis Ward all of my chewing gum wrappers, which he can use for future use.

I, Jerry Shelton, will my knowledge of explosives to anyone with $28.50, a tough seat, and little enough sense to use that knowledge.

I, Danny Williams, will my nickname, "Cobb Cousy", to anyone who has a crazy shot as I have.
I, Lorraine Clark, will my love for David, Thomas, and that red Dodge to Carolyn Kirby and Sherry Martin, hoping they will have the nerve to ride with them.
I, Russell Tarr, will my American Government book to Butch Malugin,
I, Edward Pickard, will my ability to pass Algebra to my two brothers.
I, Milton McMahan, will my ability to drag race, to be in three wrecks in one year, and my crutches to Joe Don House because he is going to need them.
I, Clyde Rogers, will my math and science grades to my sister, Debbie, who is in need of them.
I, Jerry Swift, will my ability to get along with the H. C. H. S. teachers to all the underclassmen.
I, Kathryn Hunter, will all of my good humor to anyone who will appreciate it.
I, Brunetta Curtis, will my knack of always having a math class to Eloise Hunter.
I, Ray Helm, will my insurance policy to Kenny Jones because at the rate he is going, he will soon need it.
I, Johnny Hobby, will my ability to cheat in American History class to anyone who can get by with it.
I, Dorothy Scott, will my love for music to Junior Murphy.
I, Diane Wooten, will my brown hair and brown eyes to Glenda Fowler.
I, Barbara Mullins, will all my telephone bills from the calls I 've made to Lexington to anyone who can afford to pay them.
I, George Padgett, will my knowledge of Gruder's power behind the paddle to the unsuspecting underclassmen.

Barbara Mullins
George Padgett

CLASS PROPHECY

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This is your ACN White House correspondent, Dorenda Halteman, reporting to you from the Red Room of the White House, the inaugural reception on this Inaugural reception on this Inauguration Day, January 20, 1989. After a most exciting and memorable day, to highlight the gala festivities, President John Clark Asbell and the first lady, the former Miss Wanda Rogers, are making their first appearance as host and hostess of the White House. Also receiving the guests with the President and first lady, are Vice-President Clyde Rodgers and his lovely wife.

Looking around the ballroom, one may see a decorative sight. This display of beauty was designed by the internationally known interior decorator, Miss Li Darby.

Soft strains of the beautiful "Moonlight Sonata" will soon be heard throughout the rooms and halls. As the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Henry Brazzell III, tunes up, I see some very familiar faces. Among the many musicians, I see Edward Pickard on the kettle drum, Ray Helm and Jerry Rushing tuning their violins, Jerry Swift unpacking his French horn, and Dana Rohrer pecking at his piano.

The preparation of the past few weeks can be fully appreciated as the music begins and the guests begin to arrive. Among the first President Asbell receives, are the honorable senators from Kentucky, Senator Dale Latta, who has recently been in the news because of his bill in Congress to abolish taxes, and Senator John Hobby, who is supporting a bill in Congress to put pool tables on the Senate floor. Among the many other senators arriving who are special friends to the President are Senator Herbert Emerson from Tennessee, Senator James Kimbro from the state of Missouri, Senator Bobby Moyers from Illinois, and Senator Linda Douglas, the first woman senator from Ohio. Next in the reception line, I recognize certain members of the diplomatic corps. Among these are the Ambassador to Red China, Miss Diane Wooten, accompanied by the Head of the FBI, Mr. John Hales. Following them is the greatly admired Ambassador to the U.S.S.R., Mr. Russell Tarr, escorting Miss Edwinta Kelly, the widely known play actress.

As I wander about the room, I see many representatives from the fields of art, science, and politics. Such notables from the entertainment world here tonight are Hollywood's most famous actor and actress, Mr. Danny Williams and Miss Caroline O'Neal. Also present are the co-winners of the Nobel Prize in literature, Miss Susan Kerr and Miss Loraine Clark.

As I continue my walk about the room, I detect a small clique of the top foreign policy makers of nations talking with the Soviet Ambassador to the United States. Included in the group are Secretary of State, Mr. Ivan Potter, Head of Joint Chiefs of Staff, Admiral Michael Rose, and the Secretary of Defense, Mr. Dorrill Berry.

Standing a few feet away, I see the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Eugene McMorries, talking with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the former Miss Sarah Byers, and the White House physician, Dr. John B. Evans III. They seem to be discussing the work the new medical missionary to the Union of South Africa, Miss Janice Helm, has been accomplishing.

Moving on, I notice a distinguished group viewing a famous painting, by Mrs. A. L. Gunter, Jr., the former Miss Judith Benedict. Among this group are the United Nation's Ambassador from the United States, Miss Trecia Pursell, the Supreme Court Justice, Mr. George Padgett, the Attorney General, Miss Joan Parker, and the Director of Entertainment for the White House, Miss Dorothy Scott.

Glancing in the direction of the reception line, I see that the President is now receiving the noted head coaches of the United States Olympic teams. The coach of the world renowned basketball team, Mr. Kenny Davis; coach of the United States track team, Mr. Jerry Shelton; and the women's volleyball coach, Miss Barbara Mullins.

Oh, who is this I see? It's Miss Betty Boulton, former classmate of the President, who is now doing research for the new movie of the President s life of which she will be the script writer. The producers of this movie called, "I Was a Teenage Radical," are the widely known Mr. Milton McMahan and Mr. Billy Latham. Interviewing these two great men are representatives of the press from all over the country. Such famous editors are Miss Joyce Gargus, Miss Virginia Garrison, Miss Brenda Cannon, and Miss Joyce Stephens.

Now that most of the guests have arrived, the first lady is beginning to mix with the guests. As she walks about the room, her radiant beauty is brought out by the beautiful gown she is wearing. This masterpiece was designed by the famous New York fashion designers, Miss Eleaine O'Neal and Miss Jeanette Byers. The first lady is now conversing with the special committees on women's education. The women composing this committee are from the top women colleges in the United States. Such famous first ladies of society are Miss Elizabeth Rodgers, Miss Donna Johnson, Miss Eloise Fowler, Miss Orene Rushing, and Miss Mary Rushing.

The guests seem to be enjoying the music of the orchestra immensely. The two star vocalist, Miss Brunetta Curtis and Miss Kathyrn Hunter, have been received with great enthusiasm. Among the more interested listeners are the joint owners of Star Records, Miss Brenda Veatch, and Miss Judy Jackson.

As the party is reaching its peak, I notice the first lady is talking with the President's three lovely private secretaries, Miss Gaylon West, Miss Patsy Gray, and Miss Kay Hopkins.

Now the inaugural reception seems to be drawing to a close. The guests are now leaving with the feeling of pleasure and great satisfaction. The President and the first lady have now retired to their private living quarters in the White House. This inaugural reception has been a tremendous success, so until our next gala inaugural reception, this is your ACN White House correspondent, Dorenda Halteman, bidding you a pleasant good night.

CLASS HISTORY

It came to pass in the fullness of time that the class of 1965 did gather upon the last Monday of August for a trip through Hickman County High School, much famed for its dissemination of knowledge. They had collected a goodly amount of necessary baggage in the way of bits of geography, sections of arithmetic, bunches of dates from the tree of history, and a supply of grammar. Each, moreover, had the required ticket - - a certificate of promotion from the last station, the eighth grade.

And it came to pass that promptly upon the stroke of 9:30 they did answer the Conductor's cry of "All aboard" and start on the upgrade in the Train of Knowledge. They were given places in the freshman section and they found the train equipped with a fine dining car whose capable chefs supplied them with much food for their mental growth and development. They did choose as president of their group, Johnny Hales, who saw that they had sufficient class pep, loyalty, and school spirit.

At the end of the first year, having successfully met the requirements of freshman passengers, they were transferred to the sophomore car with a membership of 89. Kenny Davis was elected president for this leg of the trip. Their journey was enlivened by stops for a number of occasions of gaiety.

With the passing of time, they were again shifted, being placed in the junior coach, with 80 jolly members of whom Kenny Davis was elected president. Side trips were taken to the prom and to the athletic field where several passengers became proficient in basketball. The mental food contained many morsels hard to chew and digest, but with the Faculty Chefs declaring "It must be accomplished" the juniors did their duty.

Then came the day when the group of 67 members was transferred to the senior coach with increased responsibilities. Johnny Hales was selected as class president. The grade became steeper, the journey rougher, but now the class of 1965 sees Commencement Station looming in the near distance. These senior passengers have become closely united and have come to appreciate more fully the supervision given to them by Conductor Phillips and the Faculty Chefs.

The Custom Officers have carefully checked their baggage of knowledge and they stand ready for a final transfer. At Commencement Station 64 members of the senior coach leave to become passengers on the various roads leading through the Valley of Opportunity to the Cities of Success, Fame, and Worthy Achievement.
